Dear Huron Presbyterian Church,
Enclosed you will find a gift given in memory of Darlene Olsen. She truly enjoyed her times with the Huron Presbyterian Church family. She looked forward to the weekly visits from the deacons of the church. She and I as well, enjoyed the CD of the service. She especially enjoyed the visits that came along with it! (The treats and gifts, too). The worship time at church was wonderful. She so loved "the music"! I'll agree. Everyone made her feel so at home. Thank you for your kindness through the years. Blessings . . Darlene's Family Kim & Kristie

Pastor's Pen

I come from a long line of worriers. From my mother I inherited an inability to sleep until I've resolved what's on my mind – or at least written it down! From my grandfather I gained a tendency to give every ache, pain, and cough the most serious diagnosis!

Yet the truth is, this sort of worry is born of a deep-seated self-reliance. In the book of Exodus, the Lord provided for his people's needs: giving them water, preserving their clothing, and showering bread from heaven each night that the people called, "manna." Moses told the people to gather just enough manna for one day because God would send more for the next.

But there were some worriers among the people of Israel. The said, "Yes, yes, Moses. But what if the manna doesn't come tomorrow? What then!? Better safe than sorry!" So, the people stockpiled the manna – and by the next morning, "it was full of maggots and stank."

In the wilderness, God taught the people to trust in him day by day – by giving them their daily bread. Likewise, Jesus teaches us to pray, "Give us today our daily bread." When Jesus says, "bread" he means all that we need for our physical lives: food, medicine, shelter, community, etc. And by teaching us to ask for our daily bread, he teaches us to rely on God for what we need every day of our lives.

Just like those ancient Israelites hoarding manna, we too want to rely on ourselves. We fill our freezers and our bank accounts against a rainy day. We buy milk and bread before blizzards.

While those behaviors are probably wise and prudent, we must never forget the fact that we are dependent on God for every blessing in our lives. When Jesus calls us to pray, "Give us this day our daily bread," he's teaching us that the Christian life is always lived one day at a time. Jesus is calling us to live by faith – to daily put our needs in his loving hands and trust him to provide for us. He is more than able!

To pray for daily bread is to pray, "Lord, today I have you. And you have what I need. Tomorrow it will be the same. I will have you and you will have all I need. So Lord, give me today what I need today and help me be thankful for all your blessings in my life."

Grace & Peace,
Pastor Andrew

Did you know...

That we had a Capital Improvement Fund Drive that began in 2015 and has continued since? The Buildings and Grounds Committee, with Session approval, began the arduous task of making several improvements to our beautiful old building. Some of the projects that have been completed since 2015 are three new furnaces and air conditioners, shingles and all flat roofs were replaced, closed the hallway in the CE wing and created a wonderful closet and an office for the Music Director, a new elevator/lift was installed, the East Room has been remodeled and restored to its original state, and the north steps were redesigned and replaced. From 2012-2014, we renovated the dome, front steps, and the kitchen and dining room. We also purchased and installed a great new sound system and purchased new tables and chairs. Thank you all so much for your donations to help improve our church. Right now, we're working on the stained glass windows, which is another costly but necessary expense. Any and all donations to the cause are greatly appreciated.

We participated in the Campbell Park Historic District open house/tour on Saturday, April 21, 2018? Allen Sager and Chuck Groth gave tours to people. Thank you Allen and Chuck! The church and the Campbell House (corner of 7th & Dakota) were the only ones on the tour this time. Look for future tours!

Did you know..

That Presbyterians escaped persecution in Europe and settled in America. Presbyterianism was so prevalent in America, that some British called the American Revolution the "Presbyterian Revolt". At least 14 signers of the Declaration of Independence were Presbyterians.
